To build a stronger home, we need to build it on _____ with his _____.

“Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and do not do what I say? ⁴⁷ As for everyone who comes to me and hears my words and puts them into practice, I will show you what they are like. ⁴⁸ They are like a man building a house, who dug down deep and laid the foundation on rock. When a flood came, the torrent struck that house but could not shake it, because it was well built. ⁴⁹ But the one who hears my words and does not put them into practice is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The moment the torrent struck that house, it collapsed and its destruction was complete.” Luke 6:46–49 (NIV)

• To build a stronger home, we need to _____ our parents as they _____.

“Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.” Ephesians 6:1 (NIV)

1. Is the command found in God’s Word?
2. Is the command sound wisdom that I may not be able to see?
3. Is the command a difference of opinion?

• To build a stronger home, we need to _____

“Honor your father and mother”—which is the first commandment with a promise— ³ “so that it may go well with you and that you may enjoy long life on the earth.” Ephesians 6:2-3 (NIV)

• To build a stronger home, we need to _____ our children with _____.

“Fathers, do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.” Ephesians 6:4 (NIV)

“Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates.” Deuteronomy 6:5-9 (NIV)
